Thanks, Justina. Unfortunately, our VTC is in use so I can't test right now. I am out on Friday, but I can schedule it with the girl that will be here (the other Linda) and IT Helpdesk. I'll look for a time on your calendar and when the room is open.

Regards,
Linda

We could try (you can't see me, but I'm grimacing because I fear technology). I'm teleworking tomorrow and back in the office on Friday. I work late, though, so am still in the office now if you want to try later today.

We have our IT support team dial the calls. Would you like me to have them do a trial run with you? Thanks again!

Hi,
You all can call me at fugh.justina@mobile.epa.gov . I have once figured out how to make an outgoing call too, so fingers crossed that we can figure this out together!

Hi Justina,
Thanks so much for the call, sorry I missed you. You mentioned you were going to send your VTC info, which would be great. Wasn't sure if you had my name spelling correct, which is quite different from Doug's.

Thanks so much,

Linda E.
